

Free Indigenous Seed Collection Workshop

What is it all about:

The session is designed to introduce participants to all aspects of collecting seed – identification, collection, extraction, cleaning and storage of indigenous species.

The workshop will cover include a basic theory session and a practical session in the afternoon.

Where & when:

Friday 27th March 2009

Ballarat Region Seedbank—La Gerche Gully
Sawpit Road, Creswick (old Landcare Centre Site)

Time: 10—4

Supplied:

Comprehensive notes, tea & coffee.

What to bring:

Pen & paper, plant identification books and hand lens - if you have them. Please wear clothing and footwear appropriate to the weather and outdoor conditions. Your own Lunch

Registration:

You need to register your interest in attending this workshop by Tuesday 24th March 2009, please contact Andrew Pearson or Anne Ovington – 03 5345 2200
andrew@seedbank.com.au, anne@seedbank.com.au

Supported by:

Corangamite Seed Supply and Revegetation Network

Australian Government

CORANGAMITE CATCHMENT
MANAGEMENT AUTHORITY