

Rural Women in a Changing Climate

FORUM INVITATION

Tuesday 28 April 2009
Registration 9.30am

Sofitel Melbourne on Collins
25 Collins Street
Melbourne

Rural women are playing a significant role in communities affected by drought and climate change. The Forum provides a unique opportunity for dialogue between women from rural and regional communities, leading women's organisations, environment, primary industry and natural resource management sectors, and government.

The Rural Women, Drought and Climate Change Forum will celebrate the leadership and representative capacity of rural women in climate change discussions, and highlight the innovative practices women are undertaking in their communities.

Featuring addresses by

Maxine Morand MP
Minister for Women's Affairs

Christine Nixon
Chair, Victorian Bushfire Reconstruction and Recovery Authority

Registration 9.30am – 10.00am
Program 10.00am – 4.00pm
